Ceremony of the Campfire Ashes

These ashes tie Scouters together around the world. They symbolize the World Brotherhood of Scouting. These ashes have been mingled with the ashes from scouting campfires all around the world. They have been previously mingled with the ashes from campfires from World Jamborees, National and Provincial Jamborees. They have come from scout troop campouts, Courts of Honor, Arrow of Light ceremonies, Jamboralls, Camperalls, Camporeess, District training events, Wood Badge and Order of the Arrow campfires. They have come from many nations around the world that have shared in the brotherhood of scouting.

These ashes are reminiscent of the scouts and scouters from long ago, their dreams, their goals, their ideals and their hope in a future that scouting helped shape towards adulthood. We are a part of this brotherhood. Let us seek dreams for the future: let us claim goals, let our hearts burn with ideals that are as noble as they are God honoring. Let us never forget the strength scouting has built into our character. These ashes will be brought again to our unit campfires, that we may be remembered to the scouts of tomorrow. So let us not forget that we are living a legacy for them to follow.

By tradition, campfire ashes are collected from Scouting events and carried to subsequent events where they are sprinkled into the flames of succeeding fires. If more than one Scout brings ashes to the same campfire, the histories of the ashes are pooled into a common list showing the dates, events and places represented by the ashes. It is also traditional that only those present at the campfire may be given ashes from that fire. In this way, the fellowship and spirit of past campfires are passed on to participants at current events.

These ashes have been gathered by American Scouts and Scouters in their travels around the world. They contain remnants of campfires at the following Scouting activities:

Algeria
Australia
Austria
Belgium
Brazil
Canada
Chile
Columbia
Costa Rica
Denmark
Egypt
England
France
Germany
Greece
Guam
Guatemala
Holland
Honduras
Iceland
Israel

Mexico
Morocco
Netherlands
New Zealand

Norway
Panama
Philippines

Vietnam

There are three portions in a packet of these ashes:

- For duty to God and Country
- For service to others
- For personal commitment to physical, mental and moral fitness

Now they are yours

You may stash them with memorabilia, as an occasional reminder of your pledge as a Scout, and for memories of campfires shared. Or you may share them at coming campfires for inspiration, to the spirit of scouting in years to come.
